Chapter 1 by letie pride

I came home and I found a note "hey sweetie me and your dad had to run some err ens we'll be back there is food in the fridge love you" i put the note in my pocket and placed my backpack and school stuff on the coach. I went upstairs to just listen to some music on my bed, but then i heard screaming outside..i looked out the window know one was there just billy watering his grass nothing no murder scene nothing.i decided to not listen to music and go on my laptop on my games to get my mind off of stuff.(20 minutes pasted) I was really wonder why its taking my parents so long. :rocks hit window: DO YOU MIND i screamed out the window now one was there but billy i went back to sit down when.. i heard the front door open i yelled MOM DAD YOUR HOME THANK GOODNESS but it was not them...

Chapter 2 by Melissa Vallejo

There was no one there but billy. I ran and shut the door. I was starting to get frightened. I went back to my room and looked out my window everything seemed normal so I thought maybe I'm just imagining things. I took a shower and went to my room to go on my laptop again. My parents still weren't here. I pick up my phone and called my mom. It went straight to voicemail. So then I called my dad which it did the same thing. It was already late and I was sorta getting tired. I laid down and decided to rest for a little (5 minutes later) The house phone rang I ran downstairs to go answer it.

Chapter 2 by letie pride

There was too much static to hear what the person was saying "You can't hide" crack "i have been watching you its too late" i put down the phone really fast and ended it. i went upstairs and i looked for a big backpack i finally found 1 it was my moms hiking backpack, i had a feeling i had to get away from the house today so i packed my Laptop, couple of clothes, shoes, flashlight, snack, water, pocket knife, blanket, pillow, chargers, stuff to get me entertained and some pictures to remember if i don't come back. i decided to just wait until i totally have to run away from home. i looked outside billy was not outside no more, But a couple of kids were playing in the front lawn so what was there to worry i went down stairs to watch tv....but then
